

4-5-1993

Vol. 4, No. 11 (April 5, 1993)

Follow this and additional works at: <http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ila>

---

Recommended Citation

"Vol. 4, No. 11 (April 5, 1993)" (1993). Indiana Law Annotated. Paper 469.
<http://www.repository.law.indiana.edu/ila/469>

This Newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Law School Publications at Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in Indiana Law Annotated by an authorized administrator of Digital Repository @ Maurer Law. For more information, please contact wattn@indiana.edu.

INDIANA LAW ANNOTATED

Vol.4, No.11

April 5, 1993

REGISTRATION FOR FALL

Registration for the fall for current 2Ls is today, Monday, April 5.

Registration for current 1Ls is Wednesday, April 7.

All remaining materials needed are on the table outside the Recorder's Office.

As usual, registration is between 9 and noon and 1 and 4:00 in the Recorder's Office.

150TH CONTINUES: JUDGE ESCHBACH AND SIR DAVID WILLIAMS TO SPEAK NEXT WEEK

Our 150th birthday celebration continues next week with a pair of lectures. On Monday, April 12, Judge Jesse E. Eschbach will speak on "The Role of the Federal Courts." The talk is open to everyone, and will be at noon in the Moot Court Room. Judge Eschbach has served on the federal bench for thirty years. He was appointed to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Indiana by President Kennedy. After serving as Chief Judge of that court, he was appointed to the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit by President Reagan.

On Thursday, April 15, Sir David G.T. Williams will deliver the first Ralph Fuchs Memorial on "Law and Administrative Discretion." The talk will be at 3:30 in the Moot Court Room, and is open to everyone. Sir David Williams is the Vice Chancellor of Cambridge University. He is a distinguished teacher, scholar and administrator. It is fitting that he be the inaugural speaker for the Indiana University School of Law's Ralph F. Fuchs Lecture Program because, like Professor Fuchs, his contributions to public service have been significant, extensive and humane. Sir David Williams received his B.A. from Cambridge University in 1953, an LL.B. in 1954, and an M.A. in 1958. He then came to the United States where he studied at Harvard and the University of California. He received an LL.M. from California in 1958.

He began his teaching career in 1958 at the University of Nottingham Department of Law. From 1963 to 1967, he taught at Keble College at the University of Oxford. In 1967 he joined the faculty at Emmanuel College, Cambridge where he served as Director of Studies in Law. From 1980 to 1992 he was the President of Wolfson College at Cambridge and in 1983 he was named the Rouse Ball Professor of English Law, a position he held until 1992, when he became the first full-time Vice Chancellor at Cambridge University, the position he now holds.

He was appointed to the Royal Commission of Environmental Pollution in 1976, and reappointed twice again. As a result of his experiences on that commission he was instrumental in the publication of four reports: Agriculture and Pollution; Oil Pollution of the Sea; Lead in the Environment; and Tackling Pollution - Experience and Prospects.

He was chairman of the Working Party of the Clean Air Council from 1971 to 1979, a member of the Commission on Energy and the Environment from 1978 to 1981, and Chairman of the Home Secretary's Advisory Committee on Animal Experiments from 1986 to 1987. He is well known for his scholarship in public and environmental law, and English constitutional and administrative law. His book, Not in the Public Interest: The Problem of Secrecy in Democracy, is a classic text in English public law.

JOHN AYRES WINS PAPER COMPETITION

John D. Ayres' paper, "Medical Practice Guidelines: A Search for the 'Golden Fleece'?", has been selected by the American College of Legal Medicine as winner of the 1993 prestigious Letourneau Award. Congratulations!

CLAUDEEN BATES ARTHUR, GENERAL COUNSEL FOR NAVAJO, SPEAKS TUESDAY

On Tuesday, April 6, Claudeen Bates Arthur will be speaking at 4:00 pm in the faculty lounge. Ms. Arthur is the General Counsel for the Navajo Tribal Council and, formally, the Attorney General of the Navajo Nation. She has been particular interest in environmental issues and is the first woman attorney of the Navajo people. All interested students and faculty are encouraged to attend.

INDIANAPOLIS BAR ASSOCIATION "TAKE A LAW STUDENT TO LUNCH PROGRAM"

The Indianapolis Bar Association's Law School Liaison Committee is pleased to announce that its popular Take A Law Student To Lunch program will be held again this year on Wednesday April 21. Interested students should call Pam at 317-269-1902.

NEWS FROM THE FACULTY

Kevin Brown will appear on at panel entitled "Reconceptualizing the Black Agenda in Education" at a symposium at New York University School of Law April 16 entitled "A Colloquium on Reconceptualizing Race: Collective Identity and Civil Rights Advocacy in the 'New Democratic Politics'". Ken Dau-Schmidt will give a presentation entitled "A Bargaining Analysis of the Regulation of Labor Relations in Germany, Japan and Sweden" at the University of Michigan Law School on April 22, 1993. The University of Colorado Law Review has just published Rob Fischman's article, "Administrative Appeal Reform: The Case of the Forest Service." The article reviews the history of administrative appeals in the Forest Service, criticizes recent reforms, and proposes a new independent board of forest appeals to apply a new sustainability review standard. Lauren Robel will present a paper at the Brooklyn Law School Symposium on "Reinventing Civil Justice."

NEWS FROM STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

SLA Elections

April is upon us, and its time again for students to elect their representatives for the coming school year. Nomination forms, which were distributed last Wednesday, are due in the SLA Box at the Library front desk by 5:00 PM Today (Monday, April 5th). This is an extension from the Friday deadline printed on the forms. You may nominate yourself.

Nominees will be notified by Tuesday, April 6th, and have until midnight Thursday, April 8th to accept their nomination and submit a statement of interest to be made available for public perusal during the election next week. The election will take place next Monday and Tuesday, April 12th & 13th, at midday outside the Library.

New BLSA Officers Announced

Newly inducted officers of the National Black Law Students Association, IUB Chapter for 1993-1994 are: President - Gerry Williams, Vice President - Tracie Woods, Treasurer - Angelo Collins, Secretary - Audra Dixon.

Rutherford Institute Sponsors Talk Tuesday

The Rutherford Institute of Indiana University has invited Dr. Judith A. Reisman to the law school to speak on "Kinsey," Sex and Fraud" on Tuesday, April 13, 1993 at 7:00 p.m. in Room 121. Her research on the Kinsey Institute (located here on the I.U. campus) questions the foundations of the Kinsey Reports. She claims that Kinsey's team used and sexually abused infants and young children for their child sexuality "research." She also claims that the Kinsey team also used a large percentage of imprisoned sex offenders in their search for "normal" sexual activity among the American population. Dr. Reisman's research -- "Images of Children, Crime and Violence in Playboy, Penthouse, and Hustler" -- conducted for the Department of Justice, was used as background and evidence in the 1990 child sex abuse conviction of Hustler cartoonist Dwaine Tinsley. Dr. Reisman's research has also been presented to the U.S. Congress and to the U.S. Supreme Court in cases dealing with child pornography. Dr. Reisman will be available to answer questions after the presentation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Winners At 150th Party Announced: Cake Results In!!!

The Winners of the Cake Baking Contest were: Christa Coxon and Maile Hirota, who won Dinner at the Uptown (a "no twinkie" establishment). Casino winners were 1st place: Christa Coxon (was this rigged?)---Dinner for Two at Siam House; Second Place, Deanna Walton---35.00 gift certificate to Tina's; Third Place--Mary Beth Mock: 40.00 gift certificate to Positively Fourth Street.

FELLOWSHIP APPLICATIONS

Applications for fellowship assistance for next year are still available in room 24. The deadline for submission is April 16.

No fellowship renewals are automatic. Everyone wishing to be considered for a fellowship must submit an application.

April Madness is here: Students v. Faculty B'Ball

April 10th (Saturday), Boy's Club (Bloomington) 5:00 pm. IU Faculty v. Law Students Basketball Challenge Right Here, Right Now. Come one, Come all to see your favorite Professor play B-Ball against the students in which all proceeds go to Middle Way House. Word on the street is that the Students have a "Secret" weapon this year.

Students may need a couple of extra players to fill out the roster (fee $15.00)(Editor's Note: Students may need more than that.) Contact Ray Limon (1L) for further information.

Wallace Teaching Award Committee Seeks Input

Each year, the Law School recognizes one faculty member for "excellent and meritorious teaching." The three-member student committee advising Dean Aman on the selection of this year's Leon Wallace Teaching Award wants to hear from you, the student body.

The student Advisory Committee, comprised of Scott Idleman(3L), Clay Miller (3L) and Heather Reichert (2L), has been charged with recommending to the Dean candidates for this award. Anyone who has taught here is eligible. Please give us your opinion, either in person or by putting a note in our boxes by the end of this week (April 9th). Thank you.

Children and Law Discussion Group Meets April 19

The Children and the Law Discussion Group will meet again Monday, April 19 at noon in Rm. 214. The topic will be children in the Courtroom: Legal Rules and Real Life Experiences. The program will be given by law student Cynthia Marker and Karen Teaters, a social worker experienced in testifying in court in cases dealing with children. Everyone is welcome. Bring your lunch and join us. Drinks and dessert will again be provided.

Sesquicentennial Celebration Accolades

The SLA would like to thank all of those students, faculty and staff responsible for helping make the recent Sesquicentennial Celebration such a big success! Special thanks go to Dean Aman for approving the budget for these anniversary festivities, and to Library Director Colleen Pauwels for her enthusiastic cooperation in the use of the library and historical displays. Dale Calabrese, Kathy McCarnes, and Merillee Biagioni also deserve thanks for all the work that went into arranging this event.

None of the multiple activities could have occurred without the considerable efforts of student volunteers. Countless hours went into planning and procuring all of the food, music, casino equipment and other entertainment. We owe a debt of gratitude to Angela Parker (1L), Fred Turner (3L), Clare Smith (2L), Sara Riordan (3L), and especially to Dean Fromm for his unflagging assistance. Finally, several students and faculty pitched in at the cookout and in the casino, and assisted in the set-up and clean-up before and after all of the events. Truly a team effort!

(Editor's Note: Of course, Clay Miller would not have included himself in this announcement, but the party would never have happened without him! Thanks, Clay.)

Media Access Project Applications Sought

Media Access Project, the principal public interest law group specializing in electronic media and other issues before the Federal Communications Commission, offers fall, spring and summer internships to students at a limited number of top law schools. Interns participate in the daily, on-going work of MAP—including decisions about what types of issues to pursue and legal strategy—as well as hearings at the FCC and negotiations with other law firms. Interns are not paid but often received academic credit.

MAP has established a "preferred" slot in both fall and spring for IU students. MAP does not guarantee to take an IU student, but will give them preferred consideration. Applications are also welcome for the summer, but MAP receives so many for that period that it cannot arrange a special slot for IU students.

In order to take advantage of this preferred consideration, interested students should submit a resume and cover letter explaining their interest and relevant experience to Professor Cate (Room 319) immediately to be considered for the fall 1993 program, or by September 15th for the spring 1994 program. A transcript, writing sample, and/or letter of recommendation may also be submitted.

EVENTS, LECTURES

Talk on Climate Change Thursday at 3:30

Tom Drennen, a research associate at Cornell University, will give a colloquium in the faculty lounge on April 8 at 3:30 p.m. His topic will be "After Rio: Analyzing the Effectiveness of the Framework Convention on Climate Change." Tom is a natural resources economist who has done substantial research and writing on a variety of international environmental law and policy topics. His talk is part of a series of talks that the Global Legal Studies Journal is sponsoring. His paper will be a part of the global legal studies workshop series.

Lecture on Policy Making for Science and Technology in Japan Wednesday

Professor Yoshio Nakamura, a Professor of Law at Chuo University in Japan, will present an informal lecture on Policy Making for Science and Technology in Japan Wednesday, April 7th at 1:00 p.m. in Rm. 216 of the Law School. Professor Nakamura is one of Japan's top experts on this topic. His expertise also includes trade, patents, the role of the ministry of International Trade & Industry (MITI) and administrative reform in Japan. All are welcome to attend this forum sponsored by The Indiana Journal of Global Legal Studies & the International Law Association. Some of Professor Nakamura's lecture may be given in Japanese and translated into English. Please attend.

Women's Studies Presents Talk on Black Feminist Thought April 23

Women's Studies Program, Indiana University, The Second Annual IDA B. Wells Lecture "Knowledge and Power: The Challenge of Black Feminist Thought" Patricia Hill Collins, University of Cincinnati Author of Black Feminist Thought, April 23, 1993, Woodburn Hall 101, 4:00 p.m., The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend. Funding from the Women's Studies Program, Janice Ramsay, and the Ida B. Wells Lecture Fund.

Women's Studies Presents Lecture on Women in the Arab World April 14

Women's Studies Program, Indiana University, Ramsay Lecture Series presents Nawal El Saadawi, Novelist, Psychiatrist, and Feminist Activist. Author of the Hidden Face of Eve: Women in the Arab World, Memoirs of a Woman Doctor, Woman at Point Zero; Searching, God Dies by the Nile, and the Circling Song. "Women, Creativity, and Power" April 14, 1993, Law School 123, 4:00 p.m. Funding provided by Janice Ramsay, Near Eastern Languages and Cultures, Middle Eastern Studies, and the Indiana Center for Global Change and World Peace. The Public is Cordially Invited to Attend. Reception to Follow in Law School Faculty Lounge.

CALENDAR

Monday, April 5

...Current 2L Registration 9-4

...Deadline for SLA Nominations: 5:00 p.m.

Tuesday, April 6

...Claudeen Bates Arthur, General Counsel, Navajo, 4:00 p.m., Faculty Lounge

Wednesday, April 7

...Current 1L Registration 9-4

...Yoshio Nakamura, "Policy Making for Science and Technology in Japan" 1:00 p.m. in Rm. 216

Thursday, April 8

...Tom Drennan, "After Rio: Analyzing the Effectiveness of the Framework Convention on Climate Change." Faculty Lounge, 3:30 p.m.

Friday, April 9

Saturday, April 10

...Faculty v. Students, B-Ball, Boy's Club, 5:00 p.m.

Submissions:

ILA is published every Monday. Information and articles for ILA should be submitted by Thursday for inclusion in Monday's edition. Submissions can be given to Ms. Dodie Bowman, third floor secretarial office, put in Dean Robel's box in the faculty mailroom, second floor, or placed in the envelope on the bulletin board across from the Recorder's office. In addition, submissions can be sent through campus E-mail to LROBEL.